

Qinghua Yang

Senior Vice President, Chief Technical Expert of Hillstone Networks

Mr. Yang Qinghua is a member of the National Information Security Standardization Committee, a member of the Standing Committee of the Security Professional Committee of China Computer Society, a member of the China Cyberspace Emerging Technology Security Innovation Alliance, a member of the China Critical Information Infrastructure Innovation Alliance, a member of the Information Security and Communication Privacy Magazine, a member of the China Information Industry Chamber of Commerce, the Vice chairman of the Information Security Industry Branch, the All-China Federation of Industry and Commerce (All-China Federation of Industry and Commerce) Member of Big Data Operation and Maintenance (Network security) Committee, Vice Chairman of Xiongan New Area Network Information Achievement Promotion and Exchange Center, Deputy director of Wuhan Cyber Network Security Talent Research Center, Special Professor of National Network Security College of Wuhan University, Special Professor of Network Security Space College of Hebei University, Professor of Chinese People's Public Security

University, Special Professor of Hubei University, Special professor of Zhejiang Ocean University, doctoral supervisor, Senior Vice president and chief technical expert of Hillstone Networks (Stock Code 688030), mainly responsible for the strategic planning and operation management of the company's technical team and global technical support team. In March 2019, he won the "2018 Golden Wisdom Person Award" issued by the "Golden Wisdom Award" of China Network Security and information Industry, and won the excellent mentor of Chinese College students Jianfeng Training Camp for five consecutive years from 2019-2023.